Along the lane where oft we trod Mid dusty gale we hoped would cease, --. Pieces for Every Occasion. O'er deepening mire, or frozen clod We now may find our way in peace. And, o'er your smooth and shining form, On courser fleet, or cutter light-- What care we for the wintry storm? We ride by day and glide by night. The charger leaps his halter's length! And fiercely snuffs the wintry air; In agony he gains in strength--Tethering drives him to despair. At length he's free. The rein is slack, -- Your soft, white cheeks the runners kiss, As swiftly o'er the shining track We hurl in ecstasy and bliss. With antelope leap, with reindeer bound, As swallow swift he flies...
