Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Red Cross in France The wonders of the Red Cross will never cease! Since it was brought into existence by the International Treaty of 1864, to which forty nations became signatories, its activities have been every year growing more and more world wide, and in war and in peace it is, probably, the greatest and most extensive charitable organisation on the face of the earth. Its membership is constantly increasing, and at this very moment the American Red Cross is entering upon a strenuous campaign in the hope and expectation of securing a million members, whose annual dues will insure to it a steady and unfailing income for ordinary conditions, while in the great exigencies of war and other great calamities and emergencies vast additional contributions may be expected to flow into its coffers. The British Red Cross is in a similar position, and is doing incalculable service to the sick and wounded who are almost daily arriving from the seat of war and needing constant aid and succour. Many books have already been...
