Had I been solicited, however, by no other inducement, I may remark, that I never would have yielded to the publication of this hasty production. To this necessity I am impelled by a desire to counteract that misrepresentation with which I have been pretty generally assailed, by those who are hostile to the opinions contained in the following pages. I have no wish whatever to escape from the charges which have been brought against me, either for my entertaining these opinions, or for my declaration of them: But I would not willingly suffer under the imputation of sentiments which I never cherished, and consequently never would have expressed. The Roman Catholic relief bill, pending in the House of Lords about the date when this Sermon was preached, has now been passed into a law, under the auspices and with the concurrence of the most enlightened men of these times; and it is not to be supposed that I can in the least be affected by the reproach which has been discountenanced by such high authority. I am aware of the cavils to which I expose myself by laying this Sermon before the public. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
