By Dr Karl Albrecht

Albrecht Publishing Company, United States, 2003. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A brief, inspiring parable about being stuck and - more importantly - getting unstuck. Three people, all of whom are struggling with difficult life situations, separately and individually happen upon a tranquil pond in a small, secluded park. As they muse about their difficulties, a frog appears from the pond. Their conversations with the frog lead them to discoveries and realizations that free them from their stuck circumstances. The frog never judges, never evaluates, and never gives advice - it merely offers questions. In those very simple but wise questions, they find the answers that open the way to the lives they really want to live. Is the frog real? Does it actually talk to them, or are they simply hearing the voice of their own inner wisdom? Does your own inner frog have a special wisdom to offer you, if you can only hear it? You ll have to answer those questions for yourself. Give copies of Conversations With a Frog to your friends, colleagues, co-workers, and family.
