Excerpt: . . . 11 percent from 2000 levels by 2008, and we have been a leading ad-vocate for a national economy-wide cap-and-trade program to re-duce greenhouse gas emissions to 1990 levels by 2020 and 80 per-cent below current levels by 2050. We are also improving the effi-ciency of our own electric delivery system. Some initiatives include investing in state-of-the-art distribution cables and energy efficient transformers, using a biodiesel fuel blend in our vehicle fleet and replacing 1, 300 cars and light trucks with hybrid electrics and retrofitting 450 bucket trucks with elec-tric drives to power the lifts. Mr. Chairman, if you ask whether climate policies have influ-enced our business decisions and whether we think there are sig-nificant opportunities for businesses to participate in the climate challenge ahead, the answer is a resounding yes. To do so, PSEG and other companies will need to apply our expertise in new ways to reduce energy demand, spur development of renewable resources...
