Howard Books, United States, 2011. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 232 x 167 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. I invited the child I was once to have her say in these pages. I am the one who came out on the other side of childhood; she is the one who searched for the door. In the tradition of The Glass Castle comes a debut memoir about a woman s hopeful life despite the sad results of her mother s choices. Moonlight on Linoleum is an affecting story of a girl who rose above her circumstances to become an early and faithful caretaker to her five siblings. It is about the power one finds in sisterhood to thrive in a difficult and ever-changing landscape as the girls bond in unconditional love despite constant upheaval and uncertainty. In these pages, Teresa Helwig crafts a moving portrait of a mother she loved completely even as she struggled to understand her. Putting myself in Mama s shoes, which were most often white moccasins molded in the shape of her size seven-and-a-half foot, I see an eighteen-year-old girl with two children, one of them still a baby. Her former husband is in Korea, drafted after their divorce; she has a sister who disappears from time to time, leaving yet another child in her care; she has no money, no high-school diploma, and a mother unhappy to have her home. Teresa and her sisters, who were added regularly throughout the 1950s and 60s, grew up with with their charismatic, troubled, and very young mother, Carola. Because of their stepfather s roving job as in the oil fields, they moved frequently from town to town in the American West. The girls were often separated and left behind with relatives and never knew what their unstable mother would...
