To The Editor Of The Morning Chronicle. Britannia, off Carthagen, 6th December, 1805. SIR, I have read, with feelings of surprise and indignation, in your papers of the 7th and 8th nit., a pretended account of this ship s position and conduct, on the memorable 21st of October; an account, which ignorance or prejudice has dictated; and which, I aver, in direct terms, is equally false and unjust. It is due to truth, it is due to the injured fame of the officers of the Britannia, to repel such impudent misrepresentation. And I call upon the v t Captain of the Fleet; I call upon every officer, who fought near the person of the Commander in Chief, to concur in refuting...
