Excerpt: . . . 11 the follow-on budgetary cycle, but as I pointed out, sir, we have been cautioned to be very deliberate in that. We are moving apace with the work to determine the potentials, but then the negotiations - we have to be invited to a particular location, and so those are the efforts that are still to be accomplished. And as we move those efforts along, we will certainly keep you informed. But I cannot put a timeline on it now. We do have a goal, Mr. Chairman, that by the time we achieve full operational capability, which is October of 2008, that some element of the headquarters will be operating on the continent. The C. On the continent. HAIRMAN ARD General W. Correct, sir. The C. One last question. We all know the stretch and HAIRMAN the strain under which the United States Army is operating today. Where will you get your manpower for this new command General...
