Excerpt: . . . by truth, kindness, toleration, and national honour, may very soon, as your lordship has predicted, be ignited by your injured, insulted, and powerful enemies, and, in a moment of unexpected fate, like your overthrow in America, shiver to atoms the entire fabric of your national greatness. In referring to the second point of this letter, I have already proved that the Madiai were not condemned for reading the Bible. The statement put forth in the public prints is utterly false. Their crime was holding unlawful meetings with closed doors, contrary to the laws of the Tuscan Conventicle Act, in which unlawful meetings, held without even demanding a license, a band of foreign conspirators, by bribery, by ridicule of the clergy, by caricaturing the Catholic religion, by reviling the laws, by distributing inflammatory fly sheets, encouraged sedition, violated the public peace, and laid the foundation,...
